Office of the Superintendent, of Police, Bangalore District. Bangalore, 7th April 1919.

Doc 15 G.P.2

Dear Sir,

To-day at 3.30 p.m. while I was with the Deputy Commissioner in his office room, Chief Inspector Mr. Sirajuddin came in and informed us that he had a telephonic message from the Cubbon Station (Cantonment) to say that some mischief was done to the Queen's Statue and that he was required to go over immediately. Thereupon the Deputy Commissioner, myself and the Chief Inspector motored immediately to the Queen's Statue and found that every thing was alright and that there was no mischief done there. While we were there, Head Constable of Cubbon Station informed us that some persons had spat upon the pedestal meant for King Edward Statue, after chewing betal leaves, that himself and his Inspector Mr.Smith had been there and had the pedestal washed and cleaned and that this matter has gone to the notice of the Hon'ble the British Resident.
